Traditional Tales

Communication and Language Listening and Attention	What we will offer the children/how we may meet the targets.
16-26 months Enjoys rhymes and demonstrates this by joining in with actions or vocally. 22-36 months Listens with interest to the noises adults make when they read stories. Shows interest in play with sounds, songs and rhymes. 30-50 months Listens to others one to one in small groups, when conversation interests them. Listens to stories with attention and recall. Joins in repeated refrains or anticipates key events in stories/rhymes. Is able to follow directions if not intently focused on own activity. 40-60 months + Maintains attention, concentrates and sits quietly during activity.	We will encourage the children to talk about things they have been up too by asking them during circle time or snack time e.g. what have you done at the weekend one to one or in small groups. We will be reading lots of stories with repeated refrains and events and will be encouraging the children to join in with these Goldilocks and the Three Bears, Three Little Pigs etc. We will be offering the children musical instruments and choice of cd's to play. When we have read stories we will be encouraging the children throughout the week to recall what has happened as each week we will be focusing on a fairy tale.
